

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Alexis Metaxas-Trikardos

Alexis Metaxas-Trikardos is an Analyst at Nestor Advisors, providing corporate governance advisory services to boards and executives of financial institutions, companies and non-profit organisations in Europe, the Middle East and Africa. He specializes in the areas of board governance, board evaluation and authority delegation. Alexis also focuses on governance-related European company law and regulatory compliance in the banking sector as well as on services in support of company secretaries.

Prior to joining Nestor Advisors in 2012, he worked as a trainee lawyer in Athens; where he specialized in corporate and commercial law cases, primarily advising international clients based in Europe and the US.

Alexis holds a Bachelor's Degree in Law with Honours magna cum laude from the University of Athens (2010), an LLM in Corporate & Commercial Law with Merit from Queen Mary, University of London (2011) and an MSc in Management from London Business School (2012).