

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Dr. Ward Möhlmann

Dr. Ward Möhlmann works as a policy officer in the Directorate-General Internal market and services of the European Commission in Brussels where he is in charge of a number of files in the area of corporate governance. Amongst them is the Action Plan on Corporate governance and company law.

Before that he worked in the international public procurement unit of the same Directorate-general, as a lawyer in a law firm in the Netherlands and as a lecturer in constitutional law at the Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen. In 2006 he defended his doctoral thesis on 'The political institutions of the European Community'. He has published widely on (European) constitutional law and public procurement law.