

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Jennifer Law

Jennifer Law is a member of the Corporate Governance and Responsible Investment (CGRI) team at BlackRock, based in London. She is responsible for corporate governance analysis, including voting and engagement with issuers, for a number of markets within Europe and Africa. Jennifer is also responsible for engaging with other market participants on corporate governance issues, and contributing to corporate governance policy development. An active participant in BlackRock's responsible investment efforts, she supports the integration of responsible investment considerations into the investment process.

Jennifer's service with the firm dates back to 2007. Prior to joining BlackRock, Jennifer worked at BMO Nesbitt Burns in Canada managing assets for high net-worth individuals.

Jennifer earned a Bachelor in Business Administration with a specialist in finance from the University of Toronto. She is currently pursuing a MSc in Diplomacy and International Strategy from the London School of Economics and Political Science.
