

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Angelina Michaelides

Angelina Michaelides has 10 years' experience in C-level executive positions, after a successful career in commercial roles mainly in ICT. Excelled in creating the commercial strategy & focusing the entire team on the common goals in prime employers as IBM, SIEMENS group, WNI, Hewlett Packard, NCR etc. Main markets of expertise are retail, finance, FMCG, healthcare, and e-Government, where she effectively introduced “business reengineering”, matching people requirements with Technology transformation solutions.

Angelina studied Applied Mathematics and holds Management Skills Diploma, ALBA mini MBA, HR professional development courses etc.

She has been giving lectures in Panteion University, ASOE, EEDE, EKKDA, workshops for private & public organizations and is a mentor for Entrepreneurship & Innovation teams, with distinctions, 1st and 2nd degree awards. She is also well appreciated for her coaching style, especially in women executives' development. She is an ICF Accredited coach.

Angelina has been a Board member of Hellenic Management Association (EEDE), President of Women managers' & Entrepreneurs section (TOGME) until 2013, a member of the Association of Chief Executive Officers (E.A.Σ.E.), member of Transparency International Hellas, member of BoD of ZAPPION Hall, founding member of National Committee of Entrepreneurship & Innovation and member of the Global Board Ready Women Group initiated by Financial Times. She has published many articles in professional sites & reviews, such as The Edge, Marketing Week, HR Professional, International Journal of Entrepreneurship & Innovation etc.