

Announcement

Comment on press reports

19 November 2014 – With regards to press reports that appeared today, the Company would like to clarify that no specific decision has been made concerning the policy for special dividends (share capital returns) for the next three years.