

PRESS RELEASE

The company AKTOR S.A., the construction arm of ELLINIKI TECHNODOMIKI S.A., established a new branch in Moscow. The said branch is the outcome of a twelve-month effort which was an initiative of AKTOR S.A. for the construction of a 43-km Co-financed Urban Road in Moscow. Already up to date, and before finalization of the institutional framework on PPP Projects in the Russian Federation, the company has signed a “cooperation agreement” with GAZPROM Group for the construction of the Bourgas-Alexandroupoli oil pipe, budgeted over 1 bil. Euro, as well as for other projects throughout the world. AKTOR S.A. has also been called to bid for SPARTAK’s stadium in Moscow (owned by LUKOIL), budgeted over 100 mil. euro.
