

ANNOUNCEMENT 26/1/2016

COMMENT ON ARTICLE IN THE PRESS

With reference to an article published in the electronic press today, in which, without any prior consultation with the Bank as to the correctness of the information contained therein, it is reported that a deadline expiring on February 15th 2016 has been set to Attica Bank for the completion of the second phase of its recapitalization, Attica Bank informs investors that no such deadline exists.

Attica Bank is in constant communication with the relevant supervisory authorities for any significant matter regarding its strategic choices, its operation and activities, and it is standard practice for the Bank to notify investors promptly about any such developments, according to the provisions of the applicable legislation.
