

Tuesday, November 5, 2013

ANNOUNCEMENT

Appointment of Chief Risk Officer and reformation of the Executive Board and the Management Committee

The Board of Directors, at its today's meeting, appointed Mr. Christos Adam as Chief Risk Officer (CRO), in replacement of the resigned Mr. Michael Colakides.

Additionally, Mr. Christos Adam, has been appointed as Group General Manager Risk Management and member to the Executive Board and the Management Committee of Eurobank.

Mr. C. Adam is working for Eurobank since November 1990 and holds the position of the Head of Credit Control for the last 17 years. From this position of responsibility, Mr. Adam created and organized the Credit Control Sector and contributed to the design of innovative policies and methodologies to assess credit risk.