

ALPHA BANK

Announcement [3.8.2016]

In relation to certain press reports regarding a potential sale of its Serbian operations, Alpha Bank states that they are unfounded and it is not engaged in definitive discussions with any party at present. The Bank notes that, consistent with its business plan, it continuously explores value enhancing options for all its investments.