Press Release

Alpha Bank Strengthens its Executive Committee by Creating New Roles

Alpha Bank has strengthened its Executive Committee with the appointment of Sergiu Oprescu as General Manager of International Network and Nikos Salakas as General Manager, Chief Legal and Governance Officer. Both positions will have a seat at Alpha Bank's Executive Committee and will report directly to the CEO, Vassilis Psaltis.

"These new roles will accelerate decision making and enhance our ability to swiftly implement our plans so that we can efficiently drive an ambitious agenda in the years ahead," said Vassilis Psaltis, Alpha Bank's CEO.

Sergiu Oprescu will oversee Alpha Bank's subsidiaries in four countries as well as the international Branches, strengthening visibility of international operations and ensuring alignment with core Group functions. He will retain his position as Executive President and Member of the Board of Directors of Alpha Bank Romania. His appointment will have immediate effect.

Nikos Salakas will further upgrade and coordinate key functions that are critical in ensuring the Bank's effective governance and control and will strengthen the Bank's internal legal expertise in areas such as regulatory and capital markets matters. The role will cover the areas of Legal Services, Compliance, the Secretariat of the Board of Directors and Data Protection. His appointment will be effective as of 1.3.2019.
