

Notification of significant changes in voting rights according to the Law 3556/2007

10.04.2019 Forthnet S.A. (hereinafter “the Company”) informs the investing public that, following the conversion of convertible bonds issued by the Company into new shares and their admittance for trading in the Athens Stock Exchange (ATH.EX.), as per the Company’s announcement dated as of 04.04.2019:

(a) according to the notification received by the Company on 08.04.2019, the Tunisian State indirectly controls via its controlled companies Tunisia Telecom, TT ML Limited and GO Plc. (the latter holding directly) twenty four million eight hundred eighty seven thousand and seven hundred thirty seven (24,887,737) voting rights which are equal to 14.421% of the total amount of the Company’s voting rights.

(b) according to the notification received by the Company on 09.04.2019, Piraeus Bank SA controls directly and indirectly in total twenty six million seventy six thousand nine hundred forty six (26,076,946) voting rights, which are equal to 15.1103% of the Company’s total voting rights. From those voting rights Piraeus Bank SA: (i) holds directly twenty six million seventy five thousand eight hundred and eight (26,075,808) voting rights, which are equal to 15.1096% of Company’s total voting rights and (ii) holds, by virtue of pledge agreements concerning shares issued by the Company, one thousand one hundred and thirty eight (1,138) voting rights, which are equal to 0.0007% of the total amount of the Company’s voting rights.

This announcement has been published according to the Law 3556/2007 (art. 9, 10, 14 and 21) in combination with the resolution No. 1/434/03.07.2007 of the HCMC Board of Directors (as applicable) and the Circulation Document under no 33 of the HCMC.