«Excellence Infrastructure Solutions Sales» award for Space Hellas by Dell Technologies

Space Hellas was awarded with the distinction «Excellence Infrastructure Solutions Sales» for 2020, at the annual «Dell Technologies Partner Awards» event, organized digitally by Dell on May 13, 2020 to honor and recognize the efforts of its partners in Greece, Cyprus and Malta.

The «Excellence Infrastructure Solutions Sales» award is the recognition of the best partner in the highly demanding field of infrastructure solutions and rewards Space Hellas for the dedication and results of the past year, as well as for the know-how, training, flexibility and efficiency, responding directly to the digital transformation needs of its customers with Dell Technologies solutions.

The award was received by Mr. Yannis Anastasakos, General Manager Sales & System Integration, who stated: «Last year was unprecedented for all of us due to the pandemic, but at the same time interesting and full of new challenges. We needed to respond quickly and efficiently to the new needs of our customers. However, through the difficulties we were able to discover new skills and abilities that we may not have known. Assistants in this endeavor were our partners at Dell Technologies, whom we warmly thank for the excellent cooperation. This award is a source of inspiration for all of us, so that we can strongly continue our effort for even better results».

Space Hellas is a Dell Technologies Titanium Partner, the long-term cooperation of the two companies has presented many important projects and an impressive development course in the field of Hybrid IT, Cloud technologies, new architectures, Unstructured Data and Artificial Intelligence. The award renews their commitment to the goals they can achieve together, in order to remain the first choice for enterprises that wish to accelerate their digital transformation.
