

Announcement, 25.08.2022

Information concerning investors

Attica Bank S.A. informs its investors and underlines that any information or development concerning the Bank's activities and issued by the Bank is the only reliable and valid source of information.

The Bank remains committed to complying with the conditions and requirements in accordance with the provisions of the current legal and regulatory framework. Bank's common practice is to immediately inform the investors, with validity and responsibility, of any development concerning either its organizational structures or its activities in accordance with the provisions of the current legislation and the relevant decisions of the Bank's bodies.

ATTICA BANK S.A.

