In addition, following the shareholders application representing the one twentieth (1/20) of the share capital, the board of directors is obliged to communicate to the Extraordinary General Meeting, the amounts which during the last two years have been paid to every member of the board of directors or to the Company's directors, as well as every provision to those persons under any reason or contract with the Company. VOTING RIGHT EXERCISE THROUGH A REPRESENTATIVE

The beneficiary as above described can participate at the general meeting also through representatives. Each shareholder can appoint up to three (3) representatives. This restriction is valid per securities account, that is if the shareholder possesses Company’s shares appearing in multiple securities accounts and that restriction does not prevent the shareholder to appoint up to three (3) representatives for the shares appearing in each securities account in respect of a defined general meeting. The representative acting in behalf of many beneficiaries to participate can vote differently for every one of them. The procuration granted may be freely revocable.

However, it is noted that the participation to the Extraordinary General Meeting on October 14th, 2022 or to its iterative from a distance in real time via teleconference, or the participation of the shareholder by representative to the voting of the agenda items of the General Meeting taking place before the General Meeting (by vote letter), the shareholder can appoint only one (1) representative.

The procuration granted may be freely revocable.

The persons entitled to participate can appoint a representative for one and only general meeting or for all those taking place within a certain period. The representative votes in accordance with the instructions of the represented, if those exist, and he registers the voting instructions for at least one (1) year since the general meeting’s date or in case of postponement, since the last iterative meeting where he made use of the procuration. The noncompliance of the representative to the received instructions does not affect the validity of the general meeting’s decisions, even if the representative’s vote is decisive for this procedure.

The shareholder’s representative is obliged to notify the Company, before the beginning of the meeting, about every fact that can be useful to the shareholders in order to assess the risk being that their representative serves interest other than the represented shareholder. In this case, a conflict of interests may arise when the representative is:

- (a) A shareholder who exercises control of the Company or another legal person or entity controlled by that shareholder,
- (b) A member of the board of directors or in general of the company’s management or shareholder who exercises the control of the Company or another legal person or entity controlled by that shareholder who exercises control of the Company,

- (c) An employee or a certified of the company, or a shareholder who exercises control of the Company or another legal person or entity controlled by the shareholder who exercises control of the Company,
- (d) A spouse or relative of first degree of the natural persons mentioned in cases (a) to (c).

APPOINTMENT OR REVOCATION OF THE REPRESENTATIVES

The representative's notification, appointment and revocation is effectuated only in writing and it is notified to the Company, at least forty eight (48) hours before the fixed date of the general meeting (no later than October 12th 2022 at 13.00 p.m. for the initial general meeting and no later than October 19th 2022 at 13.00 p.m. for any iterative meeting).

Following the reception of those data by the Company and based on the email address and the cell phone number of the representative, as declared in the document of representative appointment, the Company creates an account for the representative at the online platform which will be informed via email so he will proceed and activate it in order to exercise the shareholder's right in accordance with the above mentioned.

If the person entitled to participate did not comply with the above mentioned concerning the representative's appointment and the transmission of the relevant supporting documents at the Company, as defined above, he/she is entitled to participate to the general meeting, unless the general meeting refuses this participation in grounds of a significant reason justifying this refusal.

The Company will post on its site (www.autohellas.gr) (a) the document that can be used by the shareholders in order to appoint a representative from distance concerning the voting procedure in real time via teleconference and (b) the document that the shareholders can use in order to appoint a representative for the voting concerning the general meeting's issues taking place before the Extraordinary General Meeting (by vote letter).

The document concerning the representative's appointment fully completed should be sent to the Company as well as signed by the beneficiary to participate to the general meeting along with the required legalized documents, provided that the shareholder is a legal person or entity, in accordance with the specific instructions of completion, signature and submission included herein but also in the separate instruction folder either scanned and emailed to the email address investor.relations@hertz.gr with subject "Appointment representative Extraordinary Meeting 14.10.2022", or by fax to the 210 6264449 to the attention of the Company's Shareholders Help Desk responsible or by post at the Company's Shareholders Help Desk, 31 Viltanioti Street, Kifissia Attikis, and in any case at least forty eight (48) hours
