

Press Release

Bomb attack at the headquarters of Hellenic Exchanges

02 September 2009 – On Wednesday September 2nd 2009, a large bomb exploded on Exchange Str, next to the headquarters of the Hellenic Exchanges Group.

The bomb caused extensive material damage to the HELEX building. Both the building and the equipment are fully insured.

The operation of the cash and derivatives markets will go on as usual, as announced earlier by Athens Exchange.