

Athens, October 11th 2006

ANNOUNCEMENT

HELEX announcement concerning rumors

Concerning the rumors today about the HELEX share, the management of the Company announces to the investing public that it is not aware of anything relevant and that no discussions have taken place between the management of the Company and any interested parties.

We recommend that the investing public be particularly careful regarding any such rumors.