Press Release

Athens, September 08th, 2023

Early next week (September 11 - 13) representatives from major foreign investment funds will participate in a Greece investor trip in Athens. This reverse roadshow is organized by HSBC with the support of the Athens Stock Exchange and with the primary objective of highlighting the potential of Greek-listed companies and fostering investment activity. During this three-day event, investor fund representatives will engage in meetings with top executives from companies listed on ATHEX, including the Athens Exchange Group (EXAE), as well as with government officials and representatives from other Greek institutions.
