I. Board of Directors' Annual Report

Financial Environment

Conditions in international debt and equity capital markets have considerably improved compared to the end of 2008 and the beginning of 2009, reflecting essentially the first indications that the measures adopted by most countries for their economies have managed to stabilize the deteriorated economic and investment climate and create expectations for gradual recovery of the developed economies.

In contrast to the positive trend of the developed economies, Greece, from the fourth quarter of 2009 and up to now, had to face its persistent fiscal weaknesses which, combined with the global crisis, created conditions of intensive credit squeeze for both individuals and businesses, resulting in a considerable deterioration of basic production indices of the Greek economy and creating a negative psychology in the domestic market.

Thus, the recovery of the Greek economy and the return to growth is dependent on the growth of business activity and the improvement of the profitability of the companies operating in the country.

The total operating and financial expenses for the Group amounted to \in 10.158 thousand compared to \in 7.590 thousand in 2009, as a result of a) an increase in the operating expenses due to costs incurred in the process of acquiring the assets that the Company received in its share capital increase though in kind exchange and b) the financial expenses incurred in connection with the additional loan facility of \in 25.000 thousand, the Company received in 2010.

Therefore, on 31.12.2010, according to book values and considering for all outstanding shares of the Company as at 31.12.2010, Sciens' NAV for the Group's shareholders was € 0,81 per share compared to € 1,13 per share on 31.12.2009. On 31.12.2010 and compared to 31.12.09, the Company's total equity increased by 19,1% due to the Company's share capital increase despite the current year loss of the Company and the acquisition of additional own shares.

- a) 100% of the shares of Sciens DE Holdings LLC (Delaware, USA)
- b) 100% of the shares of CDH II Holdco Inc (ex Plainfield Finance Corporation) (Delaware, USA)
- (c) 100% of the shares of Plainfield SP SECS Holdco III SECS (Luxembourg)

Board of Directors' Annual Report for the year ended 31 December 2010

- (e) 1,038% of the shares of Club Hotel Loutraki S.A.,
- (f) 100% of the shares of Sciens R.E.D. 2 S.A. (former Pireaus Developer S.A.)
- (g) 100% of the shares of Sciens R.E.D. 1 S.A. (former Pireaus Property S.A.)

The share capital increase is part of a broad strategy for the enhancement of the investment portfolio of the Company with high quality assets in the direct and indirect private equity area. The conclusion of the share capital increase, expands and diversifies the investment portfolio of the Group while its Equity and Total Assets are reaching approximately \in 210 million and \in 356 million respectively.

The new investments have focused on companies which combine sound cash flows, important growth prospects and high recognition of products and services not only in Greece but also abroad. Through the addition of new investments, the Company strengthens the defensive character of its portfolio, with geographical and business diversification, since it creates and enhances its presence in fields such as Defense Systems, Energy, Casino & Entertainment, Asset Management and Real Estate, a fact, absolutely necessary taking into account today's macroeconomic environment and current markets conditions.

Within 2010, Sciens strengthened its capital base by raising € 25.000 thousand of short term debt gradually during the first quarter of 2010.

Besides the assets acquired through the share capital increase with contribution in kind, the new investments made by the Company in 2010, relate to the increase of its stake by € 17 million in the private equity fund Sciens Special Situation Master Fund.

The business developments of the Group's main investments are as follows:

Club Hotel Loutraki which represents approximately 27% of total assets and 34% of total investments of the Group operates in the casino sector. The value of betting of the Greek casino market has in recent years increased significantly, despite the liberalization of the market, the opening of new casinos, that are combined with the operation of hotels, and other new investments in the sector (e.g. the reopening of the casino Chalkidiki and the upgrading of the casino in Parnitha etc.). Despite the significant increase of the company's business activities during the last decade the last developments in Greek economy and their adverse effect on the consumers' available income and psychology has negatively affected the business of Club Hotel Loutraki despite the maintenance of visitation and quality of casino's services at levels similar to those of prior years. Due to the ongoing crisis of the Greek economy and the effect it has on the revenues and profitability of Club Hotel Loutraki, an adjustment of -22% approximately in the value of the Group's investment in Club Hotel Loutraki S.A. has been recorded compared to the respective investment value of 31.12.2009.

The open-ended private equity fund Sciens Special Situation Master Fund, in which the Group hold approximately a 62% stake, represents approximately 36% of Group's total assets and 46% of Group's investments. Sciens Special Situation Master Fund invests through its equity capital, in 23 different investment positions in equity and debt securities of private entities in the U.S. and Europe. The investment strategy of Sciens Special Situation Master Fund, which is based on diversification both in terms of investments and types of securities (equity, debt etc), aims at providing protection, to the extent possible, from sector fluctuations affecting the companies in which it invests.

As at 31.12.2010 Sciens Special Situation Master Fund reflected a return for the Group of -17%, excluding the effect of foreign exchange differences, compared to a -0,1% return as at 31.12.2009, as a result of negative value adjustments to its investment portfolio.

Colt Defence LLC, in which the Group hold a 14,75% stake, was acquired through the Company's share capital increase with contribution in kind, which was concluded in the 3rd quarter of 2010, and represents in value approximately 5% of total assets and 6% of the Group's investments. Colt Defence LLC is an internationally recognized company for the production and trade of defensive systems, responsible for the development, and production primarily of light defense systems for the American army and its allies as well as US federal and local law enforcement agencies. Considering the intention of US government for reductions in government spending from 2011 and henceforth, the value of the investment was adjusted from $56,179 thousand, which was the initially estimated fair value during the share capital increase through contribution in kind, to $23,057 thousand as at 31.12.2010.

Apollo Aviation Holdings, which represents 5% of assets and 6% of investments of the Group, operates in the trading and leasing of used aircrafts and related spare parts. During 2010, Apollo Aviation Holdings significantly improved its operations especially in leasing and management of used aircrafts in order to generate more stable and permanent revenues and income compared to the revenues and income from the aircraft and engine transactions that generated in prior years. In line with this target, the revenues of the company from the leasing and management of aircrafts amounted to \in 15.258 thousand in 2010 against \in 11.768 thousand in 2009 while the respective operational income amounted to \in 4.562 thousand in 2010 against \in 2.330 thousand in 2009. As a result of the foregoing, Apollo Aviation Holdings reported a profit of \in 4.178 thousand against profit of \in 263 thousand in 2009.

Moreover, Apollo Aviation Holdings has a sound financial structure with a Debt/ Equity ratio at approximately 0,45 and a permanent capital of $ 20.000 thousand, which had been invested on the acquisition of the Group's stake in the company.

Sciens R.E.D. 1 and Sciens R.E.D. 2, wholly owned subsidiaries of the Group, were acquired through the Company's share capital increase with contribution in kind that was concluded in the 3^{rd} quarter of 2010. Sciens R.E.D. 1 and Sciens R.E.D. 2 are owners of two real estate properties in New Philadelphia Attiki and Thessaloniki respectively and respresent 5% of the Group's assets. In the existing difficult real estate market in Greece, the Group is assessing the actions that are necessary in order to commercially exploit the two properties as soon as possible. Considering the current situation of the Greek economy, the fair value of the two real estate properties was adjusted from \in 19.962 thousand, which was the initial assessment at 30.9.2010, to \in 18.906 thousand which is the final assessment at 31.12.2010.

Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holdings, which represents 2% of assets and 3% of investments of the Group, operates in the business of fund management. The company aims at managing fund of funds with a significant range of investment strategies (broadly diversified funds, thematic funds etc) while maintaining its historically attractive returns at the average, at least, levels of the relevant international indices. At the same time, the company pursues to retain and expand its pool of investors. As at 31.12.2010, the results of Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holding Ltd, reflected a loss of $ 2.449 thousand compared to a loss of $ 760 thousand as at 31.12.2009, which is mainly due to the increased costs required for the integration of the investment vehicles and managers that the company has acquired over the last years.

The Company is managed by a board of directors comprising five (5) to fifteen (15) members. The Board of Directors consists of executive and non-executive directors, according to the meaning of Article 3(1) of Law 3016/2002, as applicable. At least two of the non-executive directors are independent directors, according to the meaning of Article 4 of Law 3016/2002, as applicable. A legal entity can be elected as a member on the Board of Directors.

The Directors are being elected by the Shareholders' General Meeting for a term of three (3) years which may be extended by the Ordinary General Meeting approving the financial statements of the year when their term expires; such term, however, may not exceed a period of four years. Directors may always be re-elected.

During its first meeting following its election by the General Meeting, the Board of Directors shall have its constituent meeting and elect its chairman and vice-chairman by secret vote and absolute majority.

The Board of Directors may a) appoint up to two (2) of its members as executive or managing directors; b) appoint, among its members or any other persons, one (1) or additional managers of the Company for a period not exceeding the Board term and determine the authorities and duties of such persons.

The Board Chairman shall attend Board meetings. Should the Chairman be absent or unable to attend, he/she shall be replaced by the Vice-Chairman and the latter shall be replaced by a Director appointed thereto by the Board.

In case the position of an elected Director becomes vacant and the remaining Directors are not less than three (3), such Directors may, within a period of one (1) month, elect a temporary replacement for the remaining term of the replaced Director. Such election shall be subject to approval by the first Shareholders' General Meeting. The acts of the elected Director shall be valid even if his/her election is not confirmed by the General Meeting.

Therefore, the remaining members may continue managing and representing the Company without the replacement of the missing members under the condition that the number of the remaining members exceeds the half of the total number of members of the Board of Directors before the occurrence of the missing seats and the remaining members are more than three (3).

(d) Authority of the Board to issue new shares/proceed to share buyback according to article 16 of Law 2190/1920

For the first five years following a relevant resolution by the General Meeting, the Board is entitled, subject to a resolution adopted by a majority of two thirds (2/3) of its members, to a) increase the company's share capital fully or partially by issuing new shares, and b) issue a bond loan convertible to Company's shares.

The capital increase and bond loan amounts may not exceed the amount of the share capital paid-in at the date of the General Meeting resolution. The abovementioned authorities of the Board may be renewed through a General Meeting resolution, subject to the publication formalities specified in Article 7^b of Law 2190/1920, for a period not exceeding five (5) years for each renewal. Any of the foregoing share capital increases shall not constitute an amendment of the Articles of Incorporation.

The Shareholders' General Meeting held on February 5, 2008 empowered the Board of Directors, for a period of five years ending on 05.02.2013 and in accordance to the stipulations of Article 3^a and 13 paragraph 1 of Law 2190/20 and Article 6 paragraph 1 of the Company's Articles of Incorporation, to issue a bond loan convertible to shares in the context of a share capital increase, up to the amount of ξ 97.832.689,20. It should be noted that until today, the Board of Directors has not decided on the issue of a convertible bond loan.

With respect to the Stock Option Plan referred to in paragraph (h) in accordance with Article 11^a of Law 3371/2005, it is noted that per the resolution of the General Meeting dated 2.6.2006 and as amended by the General Meetings held on 13.07.2007, 5.2.2008 and 30.6.2010, the highest number of shares to be issued by the Company for all beneficiaries in the framework of the said Stock Option Plan shall not exceed 10% of the

Company's total shares. Such shares shall be issued following the exercise of the respective rights and the share offer price shall be EUR 0,70 per share.

The options shall each time be made available to beneficiaries subject to a special resolution of the Board, to be adopted during the term of the Plan. The foregoing Board resolution shall determine the following: a) the number of options made available per beneficiary or group of beneficiaries; b) the exercise period; c) the deadline for payment of the exercise price; d) the Company's specific account to which the share capital increase amount shall be credited and e) any other detail. Any options not exercised by their beneficiary shall be carried forward to the subsequent strike period.

The Company's Board of Directors shall issue the option certificates and in December each year it shall resolve, by application of the exercised options, a share capital increase of an equal amount, as well as the issue and distribution of shares to beneficiaries having exercised their options against payment of the offer price. Such increases shall not constitute amendments of the Articles of Incorporation. In case the agreement between the Company and the beneficiary is terminated for any reason, any non-exercised options shall be depreciated. It should be noted that the Board of Directors has not adopted any resolution on share distribution in the framework of the foregoing Plan to date.

The Shareholders' General Meeting of the Company held on May 20, 2010, resolved to facilitate the acquisition of own shares up to a limit of 1/10 of the Company's paid in capital, provided that such acquisitions are consummated at a maximum price of \in 1,10 per share and a minimum price of \in 0,30 per share. Within that range of prices per share the Company will be able to make acquisitions of own shares for a period of twenty four months (24) per Article 16 of Law 2190/1920.

Furthermore the Annual General Meeting of the shareholders held at May 20, 2010 decided the modification of the decision of the Extraordinary General Meeting of the shareholders held at 5.2.2008 and 30.6.2009 concerning the purchase of the own shares, according to the article 16 of the company law 2190/1920, so as the current program for the purchase of the own shares to conclusively include the following possibilities:

These company and consolidated, financial statements were approved by the Company's Board of Directors on March 30, 2011.

2. Main accounting principles

The main accounting principles applied in the preparation of these financial statements are described below. These principles have been applied consistently for all periods presented unless otherwise stated.

2.1. Framework for the preparation of financial statements

These company and consolidated financial statements have been prepared by management in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") and the interpretations issued by the International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee, as have been adopted by the European Union, and IFRS that have been issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB").

These financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, except from the cases of investment property, available-for-sale financial assets, financial assets and financial liabilities (including derivative instruments) at fair value through profit or loss, which, in accordance with the respective provisions of IFRS, are measured at their fair value.

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates. It also requires management to exercise judgment in the process of applying the Company's accounting policies. Moreover, it requires the use of estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of preparation of financial statements and the reported income and expense amounts during the reporting period. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where assumptions and estimates are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 4.

2.2 Consolidation

(a) Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries are entities (including special purpose entities) that are controlled by the parent entity directly or indirectly in terms of their financial and operating policies; such control is generally associated with equity stakes in excess of 50% of the voting rights. The existence and effect of potential voting rights that are currently exercisable or convertible are considered when assessing whether the Group has the power to control another entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated since the date that the parent obtains the control over them and are excluded from the consolidation from the date that an entity ceases to be a subsidiary.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

The purchase of a subsidiary is accounted for under the use of the purchase method. The acquisition cost of a subsidiary is the fair value, at the date of exchange, of the consideration given by the acquirer in exchange for control over the net assets of the enterprise, plus any costs directly attributable to the acquisition. The identifiable assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities acquired in a business combination are measured at the date of the acquisition at fair values independently from the percentage of minority's participation.

The acquisition cost over the fair value of the purchased assets is accounted for as goodwill. The accounting treatment of goodwill is described below. If the total acquisition cost is less than the fair value of the purchased assets, the difference is recognized directly in the income statement.

Intergroup balances and transactions, including income, expenses and dividends, are eliminated in full. The unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction indicates an impairment loss of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of subsidiaries have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

For purchases from non-controlling interests, the difference between any consideration paid and the relevant share acquired of the carrying value of net assets of the subsidiary is recorded in equity. Gains or losses on disposals to non-controlling interests are also recorded in equity.

When the group ceases to have control or significant influence, any retained interest in the entity is remeasured to its fair value, with the change in carrying amount recognised in profit or loss. The fair value is the initial carrying amount for the purposes of subsequently accounting for the retained interest as an associate, joint venture or financial asset. In addition, any amounts previously recognised in other comprehensive income in respect of that entity are reclassified to the income statement.

Investments in subsidiaries are presented in the financial statements of the parent company as the result of the acquisition cost net of potential impairments of the asset.

(b) Associates

Associates are the entities over which the Group has significant influence, but not control, generally accompanying a shareholding of between 20 % and 50% of the voting rights. The Group as an investment entity recognizes its investments in associates through the use of equity method while it has the option upon initial recognition to designate its investments in associates as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss or classify them as held for trading and therefore account them for in accordance with IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement.

The Group's investment in associates includes goodwill (net of accumulated impairment) identified on acquisition.

The group's share of its associates' post-acquisition profits or losses is recognised in the income statement, and its share of post-acquisition movements in other comprehensive income is recognised in other comprehensive income. The cumulative post-acquisition movements are adjusted against the carrying amount of the investment. When the group's share of losses in an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, the group does not recognise further losses, unless it has incurred obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate.

Unrealized gains on transactions between the Group and its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associates. Unrealized losses are also eliminated unless the transaction provides evidence of an impairment of the asset transferred. Accounting policies of associates have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group. Dilution gains and losses arising in investments in associates are recognised in the income statement.

If a Group's ownership interest in an associate is reduced, but the investment coninues to be an associate, the Group shall reclassify to income statement only a proportionate amount of the gain or loss previously recognised in other comprehensive income.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

(c) Joint Ventures

The Group's interests in jointly controlled entities are accounted for by the use of equity method.

The Group recognizes the portion of gains or losses on the sale of assets by the Group to the joint venture that is attributable to the other ventures. The Group does not recognize its share of profits or losses from the joint venture that result from the Group's purchase of assets from the joint venture until it resells the assets to an independent party. Loss from such transaction is recognized immediately if the loss provides evidence of a reduction in the net realizable value of current assets, or an impairment loss. Accounting policies of joint ventures have been changed where necessary to ensure consistency with the policies adopted by the Group.

In the financial statements of the parent company, the investments in subsidiaries and associates are measured at acquisition cost less associated impairment losses.

2.3. Segment Reporting

Operating segments are determined based on the Group's legal structure, as the Group's chief operating decision makers review financial information separately reported by the Company and each of the consolidated subsidiaries or the sub-groups included in the consolidation. The reportable segments are determined using the quantitative thresholds required by the respective standard. The accounting policies of the segments are the same as those followed for the preparation of the financial statements. Management evaluates segment performance based on operating profit before interest, depreciation and amortization, profit before income taxes and profit after taxes.

2.4. Foreign exchange conversion

2.4.1 Functional and reporting currency

Financial statements of the Group's companies are prepared using the currency of the company's primary business environment (called the "functional currency"). Consolidated financial statements are presented in Euros which is the functional and reporting currency of the parent company.

2.4.2 Transactions and balances

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions or valuation where items are remeasured. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognized in the income statement, except when they are transferred in equity as qualifying cash flow hedges and qualifying net investment hedges.

Foreign exchange gains and losses that relate to borrowings and cash and cash equivalents are presented in the income statement within 'finance income or cost'. All other foreign exchange gains and losses are presented in the income statement within 'other (losses)/gains – net'.

Translation differences on non-monetary financial assets and liabilities such as equities held at fair value through profit or loss are recognized in profit or loss as part of the fair value gain or loss. Translation differences on non-monetary financial assets such as equities classified as available-for-sale are included in the available-for-sale reserve in equity.

2.4.3 Group Companies

The conversion of financial statements of all companies of the Group that operate under a different functional currency than the Group's reporting currency is performed in accordance with the following principles:

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

- assets and liabilities for each balance sheet statement are translated at the closing rate at the date of that balance sheet statement;
- income and expenses for each income statement are translated at the average exchange rate unless the average exchange rate is not a reasonable approximation of the cumulative effect of the rates prevailing on the transaction dates, in which case income and expenses are translated at the rate on the dates of the transactions; and
- all resulting exchange differences are recognised as a separate component of equity.
- In the case of sale of a foreign company, the accumulated exchange differences connected to this operating activity, which have been transferred as a separate component of the equity, are reported in the profit and loss account as part of the profit or loss from the sale.

On consolidation, exchange differences arising from the translation of the net investment in foreign operations, are recognized in equity. When a foreign operation is partially disposed of or sold, exchange differences that were recorded in equity are recognised in the income statement as part of the gain or loss on sale

Goodwill and fair value adjustments arising on the acquisition of a foreign entity are treated as assets and liabilities of the foreign entity and translated at the closing rate.

2.5. Property, Plant & Equipment

Property, plant and equipment, leasehold improvements, vehicles, furniture and other equipment of the Company are reported at historical acquisition cost net of subsidies received, accumulated depreciation and recorded impairments. Acquisition costs include expenses incurred directly in connection with the acquisition of the asset.

Subsequent costs are included in the asset's carrying amount or recognized as a separate asset, as appropriate, only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the group and the cost of the item can be measured reliably. The carrying amount of the replaced part is derecognized. Maintenance and repair costs are recorded as expenses in the financial statement. The cost of subsequent expenses is depreciated over the expected useful life of the asset, or in case where such cost is repeated, it is depreciated over the time period to the next scheduled improvement.

Depreciation expenses are calculated using the straight line method over the expected life of the asset, so that the salvage value of the asset is written off at the end of its useful life. Depreciation rates approximating the average useful life of the Company's fixed assets are as follows:

Depreciation Rates

Salvage values and useful lives of fixed assets can be reviewed and revised if deemed necessary, on any balance sheet date.

When the net book value of a fixed asset exceeds its reacquisition cost, the difference is recorded as an expense in the profit and loss account, and the asset is recorded at its reacquisition value. Profits and losses from the sale of fixed assets are determined as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and their carrying amount and are recorded in the income statement.

2.6. Intangible Assets

Goodwill

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

Goodwill represents the excess of the cost of an acquisition over the fair value of the Group's share of the net identifiable assets of the acquired subsidiary at the date of acquisition. Goodwill is tested for impairment on an annual basis and is recorded at cost net of accumulated impairments. Impairment losses on goodwill are not reversed. Gains and losses on the disposal of an entity include the carrying amount of goodwill relating to the entity sold.

On the balance sheet date, the Group assesses whether there is any indication of impairment. If any such indication exist, an analysis is performed to assess whether the carrying amout of goodwill is fully recoverable. Goodwill is allocated to cash generating units for the purpose of impairment testing. Allocation is made to cash generating units that are expected to benefit from the acquisition from which goodwill was derived.

Loss from impairment is recognized if the carrying amount exceeds the recoverable amount.

Other Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are initially recognized at cost. Subsequently, they are measured at that amount reduced by accumulated amortization and possible accumulated impairment. Intangible assets' useful life may be finite or infinite. The cost of intangible assets with finite useful life (e.g. software) is amortized by applying the straight-line method during a useful life period of 3 to 4 years. The cost of intangible assets with infinite useful life is not amortized. No residual values are recognized. The useful lives of intangible assets are estimated on an annual basis and any possible adjustments are implemented in the future. Intangible assets are assessed for impairment at least once annually, either individually or in aggregate along with their accompanying group of cash generating assets.

2.7. Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life are not subject to amortisation and are tested annually for impairment, as well as at instances when events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amount may not be recoverable. Assets that are subject to amortisation are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

An impairment loss is recognized as an expense immediately, for the amount by which the asset's carrying value exceeds its recoverable amount.

The recoverable value of an asset is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For the purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash generating units). Non-financial assets other than goodwill that suffered an impairment are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

2.8. Financial Assets

2.8.1 Classification

The group classifies its financial assets in the following categories: at fair value through profit or loss, loans and receivables, and available-for-sale. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets at initial recognition.

(a) Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are financial assets held for trading, if these have been acquired principally for the purpose of selling in the short-term, as well as financial assets that, on the initial recognition have been designated as financial assets at fair value through profit or loss as provided by IAS 39 or when such classification results in a more relevant financial information. Derivatives are also categorised as held for trading unless they are designated as hedges. Assets in this category are classified as current assets. Investments that are classified as financial assets at fair values are measured at their fair value and the profits or losses arising are recognized in the income statement.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

(b) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables of the Group are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. They are included in current assets, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the end of the reporting period. These are classified as non-current assets. Receivables are classified as "trade and other receivables" or "other receivables" in the balance sheet statement.

(c) Available for sale

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivatives that are either designated in this category or not classified in any of the other categories. They are included in non-current assets unless the investment matures or management intends to dispose of it within 12 months from the end of the reporting period. Available-for-sale financial assets are carried at fair value with any change in the fair value recognized in equity.

2.8.2 Recognition and Measurement

Regular purchases and sales of financial assets are recognized on the trade-date – the date on which the group commits to purchase or sell the asset. Investments are initially recognised at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets carried at fair value through profit or loss are initially recognized at fair value, and transaction costs are expensed in the income statement. Financial assets are derecognised when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the group has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership. Available-for-sale financial assets and financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are subsequently carried at fair value. Loans and receivables are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method.

Gains or losses arising from changes in the fair value of the 'financial assets at fair value through profit or loss' category are presented in the income statement within the respective line in the period in which they arise. Dividend income from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss is recognized in the income statement as part of other income when the group's right to receive payments is established.

Changes in the fair value of monetary securities denominated in a foreign currency and classified as available-for-sale are analysed between translation differences resulting from changes in amortized cost of the security and other changes in the carrying amount of the security. The translation differences on monetary securities are recognized in profit or loss; translation differences on non-monetary securities are recognized in other comprehensive income. Changes in the fair value of monetary and non-monetary securities classified as available-for-sale are recognized in other comprehensive income. When securities classified as available-for-sale are sold or impaired, the accumulated fair value adjustments recognized in equity are included in the income statement as 'gains and losses from investment securities'.

2.8.3 Offsetting financial instruments

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount is reported in the balance sheet only when the Group or the Company has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis, or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

2.8.4 Impairment of Financial Assets

(a) Assets carried at amortized cost

The group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a 'loss event') and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

The criteria that the group uses to determine that there is objective evidence of an impairment loss include:

- Significant financial difficulty of the issuer or obligor;
- A breach of contract, such as a default or delinquency in interest or principal payments;
- The group, for economic or legal reasons relating to the borrower's financial difficulty, granting to the borrower a concession that the lender would not otherwise consider;
- It becomes probable that the borrower will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation;
- The disappearance of an active market for that financial asset because of financial difficulties; or
- Observable data indicating that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows from a portfolio of financial assets since the initial recognition of those assets, although the decrease cannot yet be identified with the individual financial assets in the portfolio, including:
 - (i) Adverse changes in the payment status of borrowers in the portfolio; and
 - (ii) National or local economic conditions that correlate with defaults on the assets in the portfolio.

The group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists.

The amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The asset's carrying amount is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognized in the consolidated income statement. If a loan or held-to-maturity investment has a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using an observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognized impairment loss is recognized in the consolidated income statement.

(b) Assets classified as available for sale

In the case of equity investments classified as available-for-sale, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of the security below its cost is also evidence that the assets are impaired. If any such evidence exists for available-for-sale financial assets, the cumulative loss – measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that financial asset previously recognized in profit or loss – is removed from equity and recognized in the separate consolidated income statement. Impairment losses recognized in the separate consolidated income statement on equity instruments are not reversed through the separate consolidated income statement. If, in a subsequent period, the fair value of a debt instrument classified as available-for-sale increases and the increase can be objectively related to an event occurring after the impairment loss was recognized in profit or loss, the impairment loss is reversed through the separate consolidated income statement.

Fair values of financial assets that are traded in active markets are determined by current bid prices. In case a market for a financial asset is not active, and for unlisted securities, the Group determines fair values by employing valuation techniques. Valuation techniques include recent arm's length transactions, reference to other comparable data and discounted cash flow methods which reflect the specific conditions of the issuer.

2.8.5 Derivative financial instruments and hedging activities

Derivatives are initially recognized at fair value on the date a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured at their fair value. Changes in the fair value of any derivative instruments are recognized immediately in the income statement within other gains/(losses)-net. The Group's policy is not to enter into derivatives contracts as hedging instruments.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

2.9. Investment Property

Investment Property is recognized and presented according to IAS 40 "Investment property". According to this standard, investment property is property (land or a building or part of a building or both) held (by the owner or by the lessee under a finance lease) to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both.

According to IAS 40, investment property is initially measured at cost, including transaction costs. Future expenditures related to an investment property, which is already recognized, are added to property's carrying value when it is probable that the future economic benefits that are associated with the property will flow to the enterprise, additionally to the property's initial estimated return.

After the initial recognition, the Company applies, according to IAS 40, the fair value model, which provides that the company shall measure all of its investment property at fair value. The gain or loss from a change in the fair value of investment property shall be recognized in profit of loss for the period in which it arises.

The transfers from investment property to available for sale property shall be made at the values of the investments property prior to its transfer. The value of the investment property for the Company and the Group is measured by independent valuers according to the method of comparable prices and, if not applicable, according to the discounted cash flows method.

The above accounting principles are also adopted for investment property of which the company does not possess full ownership (implementation of the above accounting principles on the portion of a joint ownership).

2.10. Trade Receivables

Trade receivables are recognized initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method less provision for impairment. If collection is expected in one year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer), they are classified as current assets. If not, they are presented as noncurrent assets.

A provision for impairment of trade receivables is raised when there is objective evidence that the Group entity will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganization, and default or delinquency in payments are considered indicators that a trade receivable item is impaired. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the recoverable amount. The amount of the provision is recognized as an expense in the income statement.

2.11. Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents includes cash in hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of three months or less, and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities on the balance sheet.

2.12. Share Capital

Ordinary shares are classified as equity. Incremental external costs directly attributable to the issue of new shares are shown in equity as a deduction, net of tax, from the proceeds.

When the Company or its subsidiaries acquire the Company's own shares, the amount paid including any attributable incremental external costs net of income taxes is deducted from total shareholders' equity as treasury shares until they are cancelled or reissued. Where such shares are subsequently sold or reissued, any consideration received, net of any directly attributable incremental transaction costs and the related income tax effects, is included in equity attributable to the company's equity holders.

2.13. Borrowings

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

Borrowings are recognised initially at fair value, net of transaction costs incurred. Borrowings are subsequently stated at amortised cost; any difference between the proceeds (net of transaction costs) and the redemption value is recognised in the income statement over the period of the borrowings using the effective interest method. Borrowings are classified as current liabilities unless the Group has an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the balance sheet date.

Fees paid on the establishment of loan facilities are recognised as transaction costs of the loan to the extent that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down. In this case, the fee is deferred until the drawdown occurs. To the extent there is no evidence that it is probable that some or all of the facility will be drawn down, the fee is capitalised as a pre-payment for liquidity services and amortised over the period of the facility to which it relates.

2.14. Deferred Taxes

The tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Tax is recognized in the income statement, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case the tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date in the countries where the Company's subsidiaries operate and generate taxable income. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulations is subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is provided in full, using the balance sheet liability method, on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the financial statements. The deferred income tax that arises on the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction, other than a business combination, and at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit nor loss, is not accounted for. Deferred income taxation is determined using tax rates that have been enacted at the balance sheet date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realized or the related deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred tax assets are recognized to the extent that future taxable profit, against which the temporary differences can be utilized, is probable.

Deferred income tax is provided on temporary differences arising on investments in subsidiaries and associates, except where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities and when the deferred income taxes assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

2.15. Employee Benefits

2.15.1. Retirement Benefits

Group entities operate various pension and retirement schemes in accordance with the local conditions and practices in the countries they operate. These schemes include both funded and unfunded schemes. The funded schemes are funded through payments to insurance companies or trustee-administered funds, as determined by periodic actuarial calculations. The Group's employees participate in both defined benefit and defined contribution plans.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

A defined benefit plan is a pension or voluntary redundancy plan that defines an amount of pension benefit that an employee will receive on retirement, usually dependent on one or more factors such as age, years of service and compensation.

The liability regarding defined benefit pension or voluntary redundancy plans, including certain unfunded termination indemnity benefits plans, is measured as the present value of the defined benefit obligation at the balance sheet date minus the fair value of plan assets (when the program is funded), together with adjustments for actuarial gains/losses and past service cost. The defined benefit obligation is calculated at periodic intervals not exceeding two years, by independent actuaries using the projected unit credit method. The present value of the defined benefit obligation is determined by the estimated future cash outflows with terms to maturity approximating the terms of the related pension liability.

Actuarial gains and losses arising from experience adjustments, charges in actuarial assumptions and amendments to pension plans are charged or credited to equity during the assessment period by external actuaries.

Past service cost is recognized as expense on a constant basis during the average period until the contributions are vested. To the extent that these contributions have been vested directly after the amendments or the establishment of a defined benefit plan, the company directly records the past service cost.

A defined contribution plan in a pension plan under which the Group pays fixed contributions into a separate entity that is either publicly or privately administered. Once the contributions have been paid, the Group has no further legal or constructive obligations to pay further contributions if the fund does not hold sufficient assets to pay all employees the benefits relating to employee service in the current and prior periods. The regular contributions are recorded as net periodic expenses for the year in which they are due, and as such are included in staff costs.

2.15.2. Termination benefits

Termination benefits are payable whenever an employee's employment is terminated before the normal retirement date or whenever an employee accepts voluntary redundancy in exchange for these benefits.

The Group recognizes termination benefits when it is demonstrably committed either to terminate the employment of current employees according to a detailed formal plan without possibility of withdrawal, or to provide termination benefits as a result of an offer made to encourage voluntary redundancy. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after balance sheet date are discounted to present value.

2.15.3. Bonus plans

The Company and the Group recognizes a liability for bonuses that are expected to be settled within 12 months and based on amounts expected to be paid upon the settlement of the liability.

2.16. Provisions

Provisions are recognized when a) a Group entity has a present legal or constructive obligation as a result of past events, b) it is probable that an outflow of resources will be required to settle the obligation, c) and the amount can be reliably estimated. Restructuring provisions comprise lease termination penalties and employee termination payments and are recognized in the period during which the Group entity is legally or constructively bound to pay the respective amounts. Provisions are not recognized for future operating losses related to the Group's ongoing activities.

When there are a number of similar obligations, the likelihood that an outflow will be required in settlement is determined by considering the class of obligations as a whole. A provision is recognized even if the likelihood of an outflow with respect to any one item included in the same class of obligations may be small.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

Provisions are measured at the present value of the expenditures that, according to the management's best estimations, are expected in order to settle the current obligation at the balance sheet date. The discount rate used for the calculation of the present value reflects currents market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the obligation.

2.17. Revenues and Expenses Recognition

The Company's revenues and expenses are recognized on an accrual basis.

- income from dividends is recognized after the approval of the Shareholders' General Meeting of the companies that are distributing the dividends
- income from the sale of property is recognized when the transaction is realized
- ❖ income from the supply of services is recognized according to the completion method
- rental income and interest are recognized on accrual basis
- expenses are recognized on accrual basis

Intergroup income is eliminated in full.

2.18. Leases

Leases in which a significant portion of the risks and rewards of ownership are retained by the lessor are classified as operating leases. Payments made under operating leases (net of any incentives received from the lessor) are charged to the income statement on a straight-line basis over the period of the lease.

The group leases buildings and vehicles for which the lessor retains all risks and rewards of ownership and as a result the Group classify them as operating leases.

2.19. Dividends

Dividends attributed to shareholders are recognized as a liability in the financial statements at the time when the distribution of dividends is approved by the Shareholders' General Meeting.

2.20. Rounding differences

Differences between amounts presented in the financial statements and corresponding amounts in the notes result from rounding differences.

3. New standards, amendments to standards and interpretations

New standards, amendments to standards and interpretations: Certain new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations have been issued that are mandatory for periods beginning during the current financial year and subsequent years. The Group's evaluation of the effect of these new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations is as follows:

Standards and Interpretations effective for the current financial year

IFRS 3 (Revised) "Business Combinations" and IAS 27 (Amended) "Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements"

The revised IFRS 3 introduces a number of changes in the accounting for business combinations which will impact the amount of goodwill recognized, the reported results in the period that an acquisition occurs, and future reported results. Such changes include the expensing of acquisition-related costs and recognizing subsequent changes in fair value of contingent consideration in the profit or loss. The revised IAS 27 requires that a change in ownership interest of a subsidiary to be accounted for as an equity transaction. The amended standard changes the accounting for losses incurred by the subsidiary as well as the loss of control of a subsidiary. Furthermore the acquirer in a business combination has the option of measuring the non-controlling interest, at the acquisition date, either at fair value or at the amount of the percentage of the non-controlling interest over the net assets acquired. The Group has applied the revised standards from 1 January 2010.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

IFRS 2 (Amendment) "Share-based Payment"

The purpose of the amendment is to clarify the scope of IFRS 2 and the accounting for group cash-settled share-based payment transactions in the separate or individual financial statements of the entity receiving the goods or services, when that entity has no obligation to settle the share-based payment transaction. This amendment does not have an impact on the Group's financial statements.

IAS 39 (Amendment) "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement"

This amendment clarifies how the principles that determine whether a hedged risk or portion of cash flows is eligible for designation should be applied in particular situations. This amendment is not applicable to the Group as it does not apply hedge accounting in terms of IAS 39.

IFRIC 12 – Service Concession Arrangements (EU endorsed for annual periods beginning on or after 30 March 2009)

This interpretation applies to companies that participate in service concession arrangements. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group's operations.

IFRIC 15 - Agreements for the construction of real estate (EU endorsed for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2010)

This interpretation addresses the diversity in accounting for real estate sales. Some entities recognise revenue in accordance with IAS 18 (i.e. when the risks and rewards in the real estate are transferred) and others recognise revenue as the real estate is developed in accordance with IAS 11. The interpretation clarifies which standard should be applied to particular. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group's operations.

IFRIC 16 - Hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation (EU endorsed for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009)

This interpretation applies to an entity that hedges the foreign currency risk arising from its net investments in foreign operations and qualifies for hedge accounting in accordance with IAS 39. The interpretation provides guidance on how an entity should determine the amounts to be reclassified from equity to profit or loss for both the hedging instrument and the hedged item. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group, as the Group does not apply hedge accounting for any investment in a foreign operation.

IFRIC 17 "Distributions of non-cash assets to owners" (EU endorsed for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2009)

This interpretation provides guidance on accounting for the following types of non-reciprocal distributions of assets by an entity to its owners acting in their capacity as owners: (a) distributions of non-cash assets and (b) distributions that give owners a choice of receiving either non-cash assets or a cash alternative. This interpretation does not have an impact on the Group's financial statements.

IFRIC 18 "Transfers of assets from customers" (EU endorsed for annual periods beginning on or after 1 November 2009)

This interpretation clarifies the requirements of IFRSs for agreements in which an entity receives from a customer an item of property, plant and equipment that the entity must then use to provide the customer with an ongoing supply of goods or services. In some cases, the entity receives cash from a customer which must be used only to acquire or construct the item of property, plant and equipment. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group.

Amendments to standards that form part of the IASB's 2009 annual improvements project

The amendments set out below describe the key changes to IFRSs following the publication in April 2009 of the results of the IASB's annual improvements project. The following amendments are effective for the current financial year. In addition, unless otherwise stated, the following amendments do not have a material impact on the Group's financial statements.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

IFRS 2 "Share-Based payment"

The amendment confirms that contributions of a business on formation of a joint venture and common control transactions are excluded from the scope of IFRS 2.

IFRS 5 "Non-current Assets Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations"

The amendment clarifies disclosures required in respect of non-current assets classified as held for sale or discontinued operations.

IFRS 8 "Operating Segments"

The amendment provides clarifications on the disclosure of information about segment assets.

IAS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements"

The amendment provides clarification that the potential settlement of a liability by the issue of equity is not relevant to its classification as current or non-current.

IAS 7 "Statement of Cash Flows"

The amendment requires that only expenditures that result in a recognized asset in the statement of financial position can be classified as investing activities.

IAS 17 "Leases"

The amendment provides clarification as to the classification of leases of land and buildings as either finance or operating.

IAS 18 "Revenue"

The amendment provides additional guidance regarding the determination as to whether an entity is acting as a principal or an agent.

IAS 36 "Impairment of Assets"

The amendment clarifies that the largest cash-generating unit to which goodwill should be allocated for the purposes of impairment testing is an operating segment as defined by paragraph 5 of IFRS 8 (that is before the aggregation of segments).

IAS 38 "Intangible Assets"

The amendments clarify (a) the requirements under IFRS 3 (revised) regarding accounting for intangible assets acquired in a business combination and (b) the description of valuation techniques commonly used by entities when measuring the fair value of intangible assets acquired in a business combination that are not traded in active markets.

IAS 39 "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement"

The amendments relate to (a) clarification on treating loan pre-payment penalties as closely related derivatives, (b) the scope exemption for business combination contracts and (c) clarification that gains or losses on cash flow hedge of a forecast transaction should be reclassified from equity to profit or loss in the period in which the hedged forecast cash flow affects profit or loss.

IFRIC 9 "Reassessment of Embedded Derivatives"

The amendment clarifies that IFRIC 9 does not apply to possible reassessment, at the date of acquisition, to embedded derivatives in contracts acquired in a business combination between entities under common control.

IFRIC 16 "Hedges of a Net Investment in a Foreign Operation"

The amendment states that, in a hedge of a net investment in a foreign operation, qualifying hedging instruments may be held by any entity within the group, including the foreign operation itself, as long as certain requirements are satisfied.

Standards and Interpretations effective from periods beginning on or after 1 January 2011

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

IFRS 9 "Financial Instruments" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2013)

IFRS 9 is the first part of Phase 1 of the Board's project to replace IAS 39. The IASB intends to expand IFRS 9 during 2010 to add new requirements for classifying and measuring financial liabilities, derecognition of financial instruments, impairment, and hedge accounting. IFRS 9 states that financial assets are initially measured at fair value plus, in the case of a financial asset not at fair value through profit or loss, particular transaction costs. Subsequently financial assets are measured at amortised cost or fair value and depend on the basis of the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial asset. IFRS 9 prohibits reclassifications except in rare circumstances when the entity's business model changes; in this case, the entity is required to reclassify affected financial assets prospectively. IFRS 9 classification principles indicate that all equity investments should be measured at fair value. However, management has an option to present in other comprehensive income unrealised and realised fair value gains and losses on equity investments that are not held for trading. Such designation is available on initial recognition on an instrument-by-instrument basis and is irrevocable. There is no subsequent recycling of fair value gains and losses to profit or loss; however, dividends from such investments will continue to be recognised in profit or loss. IFRS 9 removes the cost exemption for unquoted equities and derivatives on unquoted equities but provides guidance on when cost may be an appropriate estimate of fair value. The Group is currently investigating the impact of IFRS 9 on its financial statements. The Group cannot currently early adopt IFRS 9 as it has not been endorsed by the EU. Only once approved will the Group decide if IFRS 9 will be adopted prior to 1 January 2013.

IAS 12 (Amendment) "Income Taxes" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2012)

The amendment to IAS 12 provides a practical approach for measuring deferred tax liabilities and deferred tax assets when investment property is measured using the fair value model in IAS 40 "Investment Property". Under IAS 12, the measurement of deferred tax depends on whether an entity expects to recover an asset through use or through sale. However, it is often difficult and subjective to determine the expected manner of recovery with respect to investment property measured at fair value in terms of IAS 40. To provide a practical approach in such cases, the amendments introduce a presumption that an investment property is recovered entirely through sale. This presumption is rebutted if the investment property is depreciable and is held within a business model whose objective is to consume substantially all of the economic benefits embodied in the investment property over time, rather than through sale. The presumption cannot be rebutted for freehold land that is an investment property, because land can only be recovered through sale. This amendment has not yet been endorsed by the EU.

IAS 24 (Revised) "Related Party Disclosures" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2011)

This amendment attempts to reduce disclosures of transactions between government-related entities and clarify related-party definition. More specifically, it removes the requirement for government-related entities to disclose details of all transactions with the government and other government-related entities, clarifies and simplifies the definition of a related party and requires the disclosure not only of the relationships, transactions and outstanding balances between related parties, but of commitments as well in both the consolidated and the individual financial statements. The Group will apply these changes from their effective date.

IAS 32 (Amendment) "Financial Instruments: Presentation" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 February 2010)

This amendment clarifies how certain rights issues should be classified. In particular, based on this amendment, rights, options or warrants to acquire a fixed number of the entity's own equity instruments for a fixed amount of any currency are equity instruments if the entity offers the rights, options or warrants pro rata to all of its existing owners of the same class of its own non-derivative equity instruments. This amendment is not expected to impact the Group's financial statements.

IFRS 7 (Amendment) "Financial Instruments: Disclosures" – transfers of financial assets (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2011)

This amendment sets out disclosure requirements for transferred financial assets not derecognised in their entirety as well as on transferred financial assets derecognised in their entirety but in which the reporting entity has continuing involvement. It also provides guidance on applying the disclosure requirements. This amendment has not yet been endorsed by the EU.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

IFRIC 19 "Extinguishing Financial Liabilities with Equity Instruments" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 July 2010)

This interpretation addresses the accounting by the entity that issues equity instruments to a creditor in order to settle, in full or in part, a financial liability. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group.

IFRIC 14 (Amendment) "The Limit on a Defined Benefit Asset, Minimum Funding Requirements and their Interaction" (effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2011)

The amendments apply in limited circumstances: when an entity is subject to minimum funding requirements and makes an early payment of contributions to cover those requirements. The amendments permit such an entity to treat the benefit of such an early payment as an asset. This interpretation is not relevant to the Group.

Amendments to standards that form part of the IASB's 2010 annual improvements project

The amendments set out below describe the key changes to IFRSs following the publication in May 2010 of the results of the IASB's annual improvements project. Unless otherwise stated the following amendments are effective for annual periods beginning on or after 1 January 2011. In addition, unless otherwise stated, the following amendments will not have a material impact on the Group's financial statements. The amendments have not yet been endorsed by the EU.

IFRS 3 "Business Combinations"

The amendments provide additional guidance with respect to: (i) contingent consideration arrangements arising from business combinations with acquisition dates preceding the application of IFRS 3 (2008); (ii) measuring non-controlling interests; and (iii) accounting for share-based payment transactions that are part of a business combination, including un-replaced and voluntarily replaced share-based payment awards.

IFRS 7 "Financial Instruments: Disclosures"

The amendments include multiple clarifications related to the disclosure of financial instruments.

IAS 1 "Presentation of Financial Statements"

The amendment clarifies that entities may present an analysis of the components of other comprehensive income either in the statement of changes in equity or within the notes.

IAS 27 "Consolidated and Separate Financial Statements"

The amendment clarifies that the consequential amendments to IAS 21, IAS 28 and IAS 31 resulting from the 2008 revisions to IAS 27 are to be applied prospectively.

IAS 34 "Interim Financial Reporting"

The amendment places greater emphasis on the disclosure principles that should be applied with respect to significant events and transactions, including changes to fair value measurements, and the need to update relevant information from the most recent annual report.

IFRIC 13 "Customer Loyalty Programmes"

The amendment clarifies the meaning of the term 'fair value' in the context of measuring award credits under customer loyalty programmes.

4. Estimates and assumptions in applying accounting principles

Preparing the financial statements according to the IFRS may require the Company's Management to make certain estimates and assumptions affecting the figures included in the financial statements.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

If such estimates are made, they will be presented in detail in the notes to the financial statements, for every particular case. Actual figures may differ from the estimates.

The main estimates for the company and consolidated financial statements of the current fiscal year relate to provisions for tax charges referred to in Note 23 and the determination of fair values for financial assets referred to in notes 5.5 and 12.

5. Financial risk management

5.1. Framework of Risk Management

The Company's and the Group's activities are closely related to the undertaking of financial risks. The Management having as strategy the maintenance of the Company's and Group's stability and continuity aims at the implementation and development of a risk management framework which will minimize potential adverse effects on the Company's financial performance.

The Company's Board of Directors has the responsibility for the development and supervision of the risk management framework.

The principles and the existing risk management policy have been created and developed in order to identify, analyze and manage risks that both the Company and Group are exposed to. The sufficiency and the effectiveness of the risk management framework are annually reassessed in order to be consistent with market changes and similar international best practices.

The Company systematically monitors the following risks arising from the use of credit and financial products: market risk, liquidity risk and credit risk.

5.2. Financial Risk Factors

A) Market Risk

i) Interest Rate Risk

The Company's and the Group's income are independent of the changes in interest rates except from the part relating to time deposits.

The funding cost of the Company and the Group is an important part of their total operating costs and cash flows and therefore affect the performance of the Company and the Group.

The Company is financed by:

- a) a \in 25.000 thousand bond loan bearing an interest rate of 3% over 3-month Euribor.
- b) bank loans, conducted as overdraft facilities, in an amount of € 45.000 thousand, bearing an interest rate of 3% over 3-month Euribor.

Following negotiations that commenced during the 4^{th} quarter of 2010 and concluded within the 1^{st} quarter of 2011, the Company's loans are of a long-term nature in the amount of \in 45.000.

The long term borrowings of the Group consist of the \in 29.793 long-term bank loan of SCHL Limited, a wholly owned subsidiary, bearing an interest rate of 3% over 1-year Euribor. The short-term borrowings of the Group consist of the abovementioned short term loans of the Company and an amount of \in 2.476 thousand of SCHL Limited that comprises \in 2.000 thousand of the short term portion of SCHL Limited's long-term debt, and \in 476 thousand of related accrued interest liability.

A 40% increase or decrease in the interest rate effective on 31.12.2010 would have, cēterīs paribus, the following effects on the Company and the Group:

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

	Interest Rate Increase by 40%	Interest Rate Decrease by 40%
Effect on Company's results	-7,1%	7,1%
Effect on Group's results	-4,5%	4,5%
Effect on Company's Equity	-0,5%	0,5%
Effect on Group's Equity	-0,7%	0,7%

ii) Exchange Rate Risk

The Group invests in entities, classified as associates and financial assets measured at fair values through profit or loss, which are denominated in U.S. dollar. Therefore, changes in the exchange rate of Euro vs. U.S. Dollar affect the results and equity of the Group. A 5% increase or decrease in the 31.12.2010 translation exchange rate EUR/ USD would have, cēterīs paribus, the following implications for the Group:

	5% increase in	5% decrease in
	€ against USD	€ against USD
Effect on the Group's results	6,7%	-7,4%
Effect on the Group's Equity	-3,2%	3,6%

iii) Market Price Risk

Market price risk for the Company and the Group relates to changes in the value of their investments as a result of positive or negative trends that may occur in the particular business sectors within which these investments operate.

Club Hotel Loutraki S.A. in which the Group participates with a withholding of 17,438%, and which represents approximately 27% of total assets and 34% of total investments of the Group operates in the casino sector, where the main risks arise from the general conditions in the economy, and particularly the levels of disposable income, as well as entry of new competitors. The value of betting of the Greek casino market has in recent years increased significantly, despite the liberalization of the market, the opening of new casinos that are combined with the operation of hotels, and other new investments in the sector (e.g. the reopening of the casino Chalkidiki and the upgrading of the casino in Parnitha etc.). Since 2005, when the Company acquired a 7% of the share capital of Club Hotel Loutraki S.A., up to the current fiscal year, the market share of casino Loutraki in gross revenues amounted to approximately 30% - 35% of all casinos in Greece, showing a significant average annual increase in revenue and profits as a result of the promotional strategy and respective actions undertaken by the company.

The current conditions of the Greek economy and their respective impact on the disposable income as well as psychology of the consumers has affected the revenues and profitability of Club Hotel Loutraki S.A. despite the maintenance of visitation and the quality of services at levels similar to those of previous years. Due to the ongoing crisis of the Greek economy and the effect it has on the revenues and profitability of Club Hotel Loutraki, an adjustment of -22% approximately in the value of the Group's investment in Club Hotel Loutraki S.A. has been recorded compared to the respective investment value of 31.12.2009.

The open-ended private equity fund Sciens Special Situation Master Fund, in which the Group hold approximately a 62% stake, represents approximately 36% of Group's total assets and 46% of Group's investments. Sciens Special Situation Master Fund invests though its equity capital, in 23 different investment positions in equity and debt securities of private entities in the U.S. and Europe. The investment strategy of Sciens Special Situation Master Fund, which is based on diversification both in terms of investments and types of securities (equity, debt etc), aims at providing protection, to the extent possible, from sector fluctuations affecting the companies in which it invests.

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

As at 31.12.2010, Sciens Special Situation Master Fund reflected a return for the Group of -17%, excluding the effect of foreign exchange differences, compared to a -0,1% return as at 31.12.2009, as a result of negative value adjustments to its investment portfolio.

Colt Defence LLC, in which the Group hold a 14,75% stake, was acquired through the Company's share capital increase with contribution in kind, which was concluded in the 3rd quarter of 2010, and represents in value approximately 5% of total assets and 6% of the Group's investments. Colt Defence LLC is an internationally recognized company for the production and trade of defensive systems, responsible for the development, and production primarily of light defense systems for the American army and its allies as well as US federal and local law enforcement agencies. The market price risk of Colt Defence LLC is mainly related to the defence budget of the governments of US and its allies, which in turn may affect the income and profitability of the company. Considering the intention of US government for reductions in government spending from 2011 and henceforth, the value of the investment was adjusted from $56,179 thousand, which was the initially estimated fair value during the share capital increase through contribution in kind, to $23.057 thousand as at 31.12.2010.

Apollo Aviation Holdings, in which the Group holds a 50% stake, represents 5% of total assets and 6% of total investments of the Group. Apollo operates in the trading, leasing and management of used aircrafts and related spare parts. The main market price risks in this sector arise from the general condition of world economy, which affects transport volumes and tourism, the cost of fuel prices and, particularly in this sector, the insufficient permanent capital or high levels of indebtedness. In relation to the last of the foregoing risks, Apollo Aviation Holdings appears to be in a quite sound condition due to the existence of permanent capital of about $ 20,000 thousand, which has been invested on the acquisition of the Group's stake in the company, and also the sound Debt / Equity ratio at approximately 0,45.

Also during 2010, Apollo Aviation Holdings enhanced its business in leasing and management of aircraft, aiming at generating more stable and permanent sources of revenues and income compared to those generated in the previous years from the trading of aircraft and engines. As at 31.12.2010, the profits attributed to the Group from its investment in Apollo Aviation Holdings were $2.769 thousand compared to profits of $183 thousand as at 31.12.2009.

Sciens R.E.D. 1 and Sciens R.E.D. 2, wholly owned subsidiaries of the Group, were acquired through the Company's share capital increase with contribution in kind that was concluded in the 3rd quarter of 2010. Sciens R.E.D. 1 and Sciens R.E.D. 2 are owners of two real estate properties in New Philadelphia Attiki and Thessaloniki respectively and respresent 5% of the Group's assets. Investments in real estate will be subject to the risks inherent in the ownership and operation of real estate and real estate-related businesses and assets. These risks include those associated with the burdens of ownership of real property, general and local economic conditions, changes in supply of and demand for competing properties in an area (for instance as a result of overbuilding), the financial resources and creditworthiness of tenants, changes in building, environmental and other laws, disputes over title, energy and supply shortages, various uninsured or uninsurable risks, natural disasters, changes in government regulations (such as rent control), changes in real property tax rates, changes in interest rates, the reduced availability of mortgage funds which may render the sale or refinancing of properties difficult or impracticable, environmental liabilities, contingent liabilities on disposition of assets, and terrorist attacks, war and other factor. In general, Sciens International expects that demand for commercial real estate will be stronger during periods of sustained economic growth that are accompanied by low inflation and low interest rates. Considering the existing difficult real estate market in Greece, the fair value of the two real estate properties was adjusted from € 19.962 thousand, which was the initial assessment at 30.9.2010, to € 18.906 thousand which is the final assessment at 31.12.2010

Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holdings Ltd, in which the Group holds a 19% stake, represents 2% of assets and 3% of investments of the Group and operates in the business of fund management. The main risks in this sector arise from the status of international capital markets that may adversely affect, either through declining valuations or through forcing liquidation of investment positions, the levels of assets under management and therefore the respective management and incentive fee income. Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holdings Ltd aims at managing fund of funds with a significant range of investment strategies

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

(broadly diversified funds, thematic funds etc) while maintaining its historically attractive returns at the average, at least, levels of the relevant international indices. At the same time, Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holdings pursues to retain and expand its pool of investors. As at 31.12.2010, the loss attributed to the Group from the investment in Sciens Fund of Funds Management Holdings Ltd amounted to $578 thousand compared to $32 thousand as at 31.12.2009.

B) Liquidity Risk

Given the sound financial condition of the Company's and the Group's main investments, the liquidity risk level for the Company and the Group is considered as moderate. The Company's bank loans represent 29% of its Equity and 22% of its Assets. The Group's bank loans represent 48% of its Equity and 29% of its Assets.

The tables below present, as at the Balance Sheet date, the Company's and the Group's payable, in cash, liabilities resulting on the basis of contractual maturities. Liabilities from reinsurance activities have not been included in the following analysis of liquidity as they are not purely cash items, while they are associated to liabilities of minority shareholders as mentioned in note 19. The amounts stated below represent contractual, non-discounted cash flows. The Company and the Group manage liquidity risk on the basis of non-discounted cash flow assessments, while interest-bearing obligations have been estimated on the basis of interest rates effective on 31.12.2010 and 31.12.2009 respectively.

C) Credit Risk

Due to the nature of the Company's and the Group's business which mainly involve investments and related income, credit risk appears to be quite low for the Company and the Group.

5.3. Classification of Financial Instruments

The classification of financial instruments by category is as follows:

5.4. Capital risk management

When managing its capital resources, the Group aims at applying the most efficient capital structure in order to maintain its operations in a going concern mode, provide its shareholders with the expected returns and carry out effectively any transactions with third parties.

In order to maintain the efficiency of its capital structure, the group may, if required, adjust the amount of dividends that is to be distributed to shareholders, pay back equity capital to shareholders, issue new shares or sell assets to reduce debt.

The group monitors capital on the basis of the gearing ratio. This ratio is calculated as net debt divided by total capital. Net debt is calculated as total borrowings (including 'current and non-current borrowings' as shown in the consolidated balance sheet) less cash and cash equivalents. Total capital is calculated as 'equity' as shown in the consolidated balance sheet plus net debt.

	31.12.2010	31.12.2009
Total borrowings	102.504	77.184
Less: Cash and cash equivalents	46.372	37.432
Net Debt (a)	56.132	39.752
Total Equity (b)	215.599	184.084
Total Capital (a+b)	271.731	223.836
Gearing Ratio	21%	18%

5.5. Determination of financial assets' fair value

The fair value of financial assets traded in active markets (stock exchanges) (e.g. derivatives, equities, bonds, mutual funds) is determined on the basis of quoted prices as at the balance sheet date.

The fair value of financial assets not traded in active markets is determined through the use of valuation techniques and assumptions, which are mainly based on market data as at the balance sheet date as well as actual transactions. Valuation techniques may utilise one or more of the following parameters:

- the investment acquisition cost
- transactions subsequent to the initial acquisition
- investment valuations performed by third parties
- the historical and current return of the investment
- the investment business plan as regards each company's business sector
- the discounted net cash flows of the investment, at discount rates which are compatible with the nature of each investment
- the nature and value of assets involved in each investment
- material changes in the structure of investment assets
- comparable international and local transactions
- comparable capital market indices
- the shareholding structure and control percentage in each investment

Without a readily available fair value and because of the inherent uncertainty of valuation techniques, the values calculated through the use of valuation techniques may differ from the values at which transactions for such investment shall actually be effected.

The group adopted the amendment to IFRS 7 for financial instruments that are measured in the balance sheet at fair value. The foregoing requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

Company and Consolidated Financial Statements as at 31 December 2010 Amounts in thousand Euros (unless otherwise stated)

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1)
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (level 2).
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is,unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The following table presents the group's assets and liabilities that are measured at fair value at 31 December 2010.

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total Balance

Regarding the negative goodwill occurred, it should be mentioned that taking into account the procedure of the share capital increase through contribution in kind, the Company and the contributing shareholders assessed the values of the assets contributed and the shares exchanged, according to the factors, investment opportunities and associated risks that each shareholder may anticipate, and proceeded in concluding the transaction. The possible reasons that may have resulted in the occurrence of the negative goodwill could be indicatively the following:

- a) the shares of the Company are listed on an organized stock exchange market of an E.U. country, whereas the contributed financial assets are not listed on an organized stock exchange market. Under the current circumstances and conditions of the global and domestic financial markets, the stock price of a company may differ from its medium-term value anticipated by investors.
- b) the investment strategy the shareholders have decided to apply in respect of their investment portfolio.
