

ATHENS EXCHANGE GROUP ANNOUNCEMENT

The Athens Exchange Group informs that the technical issue that occurred during today's trading session has been successfully resolved.

The cause of the issue was identified as a technical hardware mishap which affected the trading system infrastructure. Despite the restoration of the malfunction and the efforts of ATHEX staff, the reconnection of all market participants within the normal continuous trading session was not feasible in that time window.

Closing market operations were fully restored at 17:20, with closing prices determined in accordance with the ATHEX Regulation and Decision 22 of the Athens Stock Exchange.

The trading session on Tuesday, March 18, will proceed as scheduled.

All necessary measures have been taken to prevent reoccurrence of the problem. The Management of the Athens Exchange Group apologizes for any inconvenience caused to the investment community.
