

Strong Greek Presence at the Wood's EME NYC Conference in New York

April 3–4, 2025

The Athens Stock Exchange is participating as a sponsor in the leading investment roadshow Wood's EME NYC Conference, taking place on April 3–4, 2025, in New York City. This year marks the largest-ever Greek participation, underscoring the growing interest of the international investment community in the Greek market.

Twelve Greek companies will attend the conference, engaging in one-on-one and group meetings with institutional investors from the U.S.:

1. Alpha Services & Holdings
2. Athens Exchange Group
3. Bank of Cyprus
4. GEK Terna
5. HelleniQ Energy
6. Metlen
7. OPAP
8. Optima Bank
9. Piraeus Financial Holdings
10. Public Power Corporation
11. Sarantis
12. THEON International

The Athens Stock Exchange's participation in this event aligns with its broader strategy of extroversion and international outreach, aiming to strengthen the access of Greek companies to global investment capital.

More information on the conference is available at: <https://events.wood.cz/emenyc>