

Wood's Greek Retreat 2025: Record Participation by Greek Companies

Athens Exchange Group participates in and sponsors major investor event in Athens

The Athens Exchange Group is pleased to participate in and sponsor Wood's Greek Retreat 2025, reaffirming its commitment to promoting Greek businesses within the international investment community.

This year's event, held on May 15-16 in Divani Apollon Palace & Thalasso Hotel in Athens, features a record participation of 32 Greek listed companies from key sectors of the economy. Through a full agenda of one-on-one meetings and networking sessions, the conference will highlight Greece's strong economic momentum and the investment opportunities it offers.

Welcoming remarks at the conference will be delivered by Mr. Michalis Argyrou, Head of the Economics Office of the Prime Minister of the Hellenic Republic, and Mr. Yianos Kontopoulos, CEO of the Athens Exchange Group.

Participating companies include:

Aegean Airlines, Aktor, Alpha Services and Holdings, Alter Ego Media, Athens Exchange Group, Athens International Airport, Austria Card Holdings, Bank of Cyprus, Cenergy Holdings, ElvalHalcor, Eurobank Ergasias Services, Furlis, GEK Terna, HELLENiQ Energy, Kri Kri, Lamda Development, Metlen Energy & Metals, Motor Oil Hellas, National Bank of Greece, Noval Property, OPAP, OPTIMA Bank SA, OTE, Piraeus Financial Holdings, Piraeus Port Authority, Profile Software, Public Power Corporation, Sarantis, THEON International, Titan Cement, Trade Estates, and Viohalco.

Sponsorship of Wood's Greek Retreat forms part of ATHEX's broader strategy to actively support the visibility and promotion of the Greek capital market among institutional investors worldwide.

Please note the event is not open to members of the press or media organizations. For more information about the event, please visit: <https://events.wood.cz/greekretreat>.