

Athens, 05.05.2025

Appointment of new Chief Information and Digital Officer

Attica Bank welcomes Mr. Harris Mygdalis to its management team. Mr. Mygdalis assumes the position of Chief Information and Digital Officer (CIDO) with effect from 5.5.2025. Reporting to the CEO, he will also join the Bank's Executive Committee and the Asset-Liability Management Committee (ALCO) while also chairing the Technology Committee.

In his capacity as Chief Information and Digital Officer (CIDO), Mr. Mygdalis will be responsible for designing and implementing the Information Technology and Digital Strategy, ensuring an uninterrupted and secure technology ecosystem, fostering exceptional Customer Service through innovative solutions across all the Bank's contact points and contributing to the Bank's overall business development.

Brief CV of the new Executive of Attica Bank Harris Mygdalis, Chief Information and Digital Officer (CIDO)

Mr. Mygdalis is a senior executive with over 30 years of experience both in Greece and Internationally (SouthEast Europe & Middle East). With a long-standing background in the domain of Information Technology, he combines his deep technology knowledge with the design and the implementation of business targets through financial services and products development.

Before his appointment with Attica Bank, Mr Mygdalis held the position of Group Chief Digital Officer in Eurobank. Throughout his career he has successfully managed large-scale transformational initiatives, driving innovation and optimizing customer experience. Mr Mygdalis played a pivotal role in shaping and executing digital strategies within the banking sector, enhancing the bank's operations and business development.

Mr. Mygdalis holds a BSc in Accounting and Management Information Systems from the University of Hertfordshire and a Postgraduate degree in Business Administration from the University of Leicester.

ATTICA BANK S.A.