Participation in the “Geneva Mid Cap Event 2025”

ALUMIL ALUMINIUM INDUSTRY S.A. (“ALUMIL”) participated in the “Geneva Spring Midcap Event 2025” held on 19 June 2025 in Geneva, under the auspices of the Athens Stock Exchange Group in collaboration with CF&B Communication. The event aimed to enhance the international visibility and outreach of listed mid-cap companies to foreign institutional investors.

During the event, representatives of ALUMIL held meetings with institutional investors and executives of international investment firms, presenting the company’s strategic plans, financial results, and international growth prospects. Special emphasis was placed on ALUMIL’s initiatives to strengthen sustainability and adopt innovative practices.

The presentation used during the investor meetings is available on ALUMIL’s website.
