

PRESS RELEASE

Intralot Gaming Services Pty Ltd awarded 15-year Electronic Gaming Machine Monitoring Licence in Victoria, Australia

Athens, April 22, 2026

Bally's Intralot S.A. (Bally's Intralot) is pleased to announce that its Australian subsidiary, Intralot Gaming Services (IGS) has been awarded a new 15-year Electronic Gaming Machine (EGM) Monitoring Licence for the State of Victoria, effective 16 August 2027.

This landmark award positions Bally's Intralot to deliver a new generation of technology, transparency and collaboration to one of the world's most mature and highly regulated gaming markets.

Approximately 26,300 EGMs will be connected to the Monitoring System which will provide a vital role in ensuring the ongoing integrity of EGM transactions in gaming venues. It will also provide data and information on EGMs for regulatory, harm minimisation, taxation and research purposes.

Under the licence, IGS will also be responsible for the delivery, operation and maintenance of the statewide Pre-commitment System for all EGMs in Victoria, including 2,628 EGMs at the Melbourne casino.

A New Technology Era for Victoria

IGS will deploy a next-generation, cloud-enabled monitoring platform designed to deliver:

- Real-time monitoring and reporting
- Advanced data analytics capabilities
- Best-in-class cybersecurity protections
- Scalable architecture to support evolving regulatory requirements
- Future-ready integration enabling seamless connectivity with venues, manufacturers and regulatory systems

Commitment to Victoria

"This award represents a major milestone for Bally's Intralot and IGS and is a significant investment in the future of Victoria's gaming technology infrastructure," said Robeson Reeves, CEO of the Bally's Intralot Group. "We look forward to working with the Victorian Government, the Victorian Gambling and Casino Control Commission, and industry stakeholders to deliver a secure and transparent monitoring system that supports integrity and player protection."

IGS and Bally's Intralot will commence planning and stakeholder engagement in the coming months to support a carefully managed, smooth and seamless transition.

Intralot Gaming Services Pty Ltd is a wholly owned subsidiary of Intralot Australia Pty Ltd which in turn is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Bally's Intralot Group.

About Bally's Intralot S.A.

Bally's Intralot, following the October 2025 acquisition of Bally's International Interactive Business, is a leading iGaming and lottery solutions provider listed on the Athens Stock Exchange, aiming to drive strategic growth and global competitiveness across the globe. Combining Bally's proven digital B2C expertise with INTRALOT's longstanding leadership in regulated lottery gaming, Bally's Intralot forms a uniquely positioned, independent global champion across online gaming, lottery, iLottery, and sports betting.

Press Office | Phone +30 210 615 6000 | email press_office@intralot.com